Red Stocking Campaign Begins

Richmond – The Red Stocking campaign, a special fund drive conducted annually by the Children's Home Society of Virginia, will begin Nov. 27.

John L. McElroy, president of the society, said the drive this year is particularly important. We are counting on the generosity of the people of Appomattox to help us maintain and hopefully increase the level of services provided to families in this area.

"The goal of the agency is to help all who request service," McElroy said. "At the present time, financial considerations make it impossible to meet all requests and children actually must be turned away because of the lack of funds."

Modern Adoption Services

The society offers a broad range of modern adoption services. The agency's outreach to unwed mothers, children in need of homes and couples wishing to adopt," he pointed out, "extends across the state through offices in Richmond, Arlington and Roanoke."

The Children's Home Society of Virginia is non – profit and non – sectarian and receives no government funds for its work of finding homes for some 200 children annually.

Intensive Effort

During the Red Stocking Campaign the staff of the society and dozens of volunteers are making an intensive effort to contact as many people as possible between now and the end of the year. The drive will be conducted by direct mail. However, McElroy cited the fact that "any person interested in children who would like to invest in the future of a tiny human being, may mail a contribution to the Children's Home Society of Virginia, Box 11183, Richmond, Va. 23230."

ASC UNIT WILL MEET IN JAN.

The Appomattox Unit, Va. Division, American Cancer Society will meet on Monday, Jan. 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the Appomattox County High School Library, instead of meeting in December. Dr. C. G. O'Brien is president.
